

A diagram showing the decomposition of the number 10. It consists of five vertical rectangles of equal height. The first rectangle is on the left. The next three rectangles are grouped together by a single vertical line on their left and a single vertical line on their right, forming a block of three rectangles. The final rectangle is on the far right.

7748

١١١١ : على طريق الملك خالد مع تقاطع النقع العام في الجزيرة الوسطية من جهة

